What Can I Find in World War I Civilian Draft Registrations?

In 1917 and 1918, approximately 24 million men living in the United States completed a registration c representing 98% of men under the age of 46 and close to 25% of the total population. The WWI draft cards contain a lot of information pertinent to genealogical research. Information that may be found or includes full name, address, age, date of birth, race, citizenship, occupation, employer's name, locatio employment, name and address of nearest relative, physical description, and signature of registrant, a things. The draft cards are also a good source for finding immigrant information because all young me required to register, regardless of U.S. citizen status, and since 1880-1920 was a high immigration pe portion of immigrant men registered and gave information of birth date, birthplace, and in some cases father's birthplace and nearest relative.

Description:

Looking for the 1910 U.S. Federal Census Images? C

This database is an index to the head of households enumerated in the 1910 United States Federal Cer Thirteenth Census of the United States. In addition, actual images of the 1910 Federal Census, copied National Archives and Records Administration microfilm, T624, 1784 rolls may be browsed by selecting county, township, and enumeration district. Click here to browse the images.

Enumerators of the 1910 census were instructed to record the names of every person in the household Enumerators were asked to include the following categories in the census: name; relationship to head age at last birthday; sex; color or race; whether single, married, widowed, or divorced; number of yea marriage; number of children born; number of children now living; birthplace; mother tongue; birthpla and mother; mother tongue of father and mother; year of immigration to the U.S.; whether naturalize whether able to speak English, or if not, give language spoken; trade or profession; industry; whether employee, or working on own account; if an employee, whether out of work on April 15, 1910; if an er number of weeks out of work during year 1909, whether able to read; whether able to write; attended time since September 1, 1909; home owned or rented; home owned free or mortgaged; farm or house farm schedule; whether a survivor of the Union or Confederate Army or Navy; whether blind; whether dumb. The categories allowed Congress to determine persons residing in the United States for collectic and the appropriation of seats in the House of Representatives.

Few, if any, records reveal as many details about individuals and families as do the U.S. Federal Censu population schedules are successive "snapshots" of Americans that depict where and how they were liv particular periods in the past. Because of this, the census is often the best starting point for genealogic after home sources have been exhausted.

Extended Description:

The United States was the first country to call for a regularly held census. The Constitution required th of all "Persons...excluding Indians not taxed" be performed to determine the collection of taxes and th appropriation of seats in the House of Representatives. The first nine censuses from 1790 to 1870 wer under the United States Federal Court system. Each district was assigned a U.S. marshal who hired otl to administer the census. Governors were responsible for enumeration in territories.

The official enumeration day of the 1910 census was 15 April 1910. All questions asked were supposec that date. By 1910, there were a total of forty-six states in the Union, with Utah and Oklahoma being t editions and Arizona, New Mexico, Hawaii, and Alaska as territories.

SSDI

Ancestry.com's Social Security Death Index lists over 72 million names dating from as early 1930s. Compiled from the Social Security Administrations Master Death File, this searchable a good starting point for those beginning their genealogy.

Tips for using the SSDI

Most of the names listed in the Social Security Death Index date from the 1960s. Though th Security Act was created in 1935, a computer system for reporting death benefit claims did until 1962.

Keep in mind that the Social Security Death Index does not list every person who received Security Benefits. This index only lists deaths that were actually reported to the Social Secu Administration.

Once youve found the name of a relative, you can request a copy of the full Social Security the Social Security Administration. Just click on Order original application to send for a copy ancestors original Social Security information. You can also use the information in this inde birth, death, and employment records.
